The Keeper released the catch!
Out tumbled a tiny, soft cub.

He looked around with big brown eyes,
then slowly he started to blub.

“Oh no, they’ve sent us a lion,”
moaned a tiger called Tom.

“I distinctly remember me saying another lion just wasn’t on.”

“Oh stop it!” retorted the penguin.
“Look at him shaking with fear.

 Come my dear little fellow,
 I’ll show you all around here.”

The lion cub gazed at the stranger,
 not wanting to move at all.
His new home looked really massive and he felt decidedly small.
