“Say it isn’t true Dad.” He looked with saddened eyes.
Mr Grape considered it, and couldn’t tell him lies.

“Yes, my son. Adam’s gone, and so has Percy Pear.
They could be in fruit salad, or perhaps a pie somewhere.

It’s the fate of food like us, five veg’ or fruits a day.
We have a responsibility to keep illnesses away.”

The little grape did not agree, so decided to escape.
He'd become a superhero, with a long and flowing cape.
